Student Expo - your life starts right here

Student Expo is the largest gathering for students and parents!

You will have the opportunity to meet tertiary institutions, gather information on different courses, find accommodation, affordable transport and secure your student loans and learn how to manage your finances. Graduates can seek career opportunities, advice on CV and interview skills. Come meet some inspiring leaders!

Excitement is building as the final two weeks of preparations are in full swing for the inaugural Student Expo to be help South Africa further tertiary education and build a brighter South Africa as your future starts right here!

The Expo is aimed at High School and University Students and graduates and will be held on the 23 and 24 of November at the Coca Cola Dome, the 24 and 25 of November at the Cape Town ICC and the Durban Exhibition Centre on the 6 and 7 of December.

The concept was initially created with Accommodation shortage for students in mind but has since grown into a unique resourceful exhibition where students will find tons of information, have an opportunity to network and listen to some extremely motivational speakers.

School leavers will have the opportunity to meet estate agents and secure accommodation, seek career advice, meet representatives from potential universities, gather information on various courses and get a better understanding of University Life including facilities, social aspect and sporting clubs.

Graduates can explore opportunities both locally and internationally, meet recruiting companies and learn more about different industries and careers, develop CV's and interview skills.

We have the big banks attending where you can find out about student loans, bank accounts and more plus we have cars and scooters available to view, cell phone companies and plenty more!
We have well known Deans, Businessmen and Celebrities speaking at our expo such as Michelle Maclean (Ex Miss Universe) and Stefan Terblanche (Ex Springbok rugby player).

Students will each receive a free entry ticket into the Tiger Tiger after party in all three cities and U4U rage Card holders only pay R20 entrance!

Students have an opportunity to win a Big Boy Scooter by most referral WIN's, just visit our website http://student-expo.com/big-boy-competition/
Please find attached a 30 sec video + a poster that you can put up anywhere or an email that you can send out to all your friends and relatives and Like our Facebook page!
