

Webber Wentzel appoints Mark Garden as a partner in its CTI practice

Webber Wentzel has appointed Mark Garden as a partner in its competition, trade and investment (CTI) practice. Garden brings a plethora of experience and knowledge, having worked on some of the most important South African competition law cases, and provides expertise in complicated competition litigation on the continent.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>