

City Lodge increases Wi-Fi access for guests

As part of its ongoing commitment to adding value for guests, the City Lodge Hotel Group has greatly increased complimentary wireless internet (Wi-Fi) availability at its hotels.

Effective from 1 January 2014, the group now offers one hour of complimentary wifi access per day at its Courtyard Hotel, City Lodge Hotel and Town Lodge brands. It also now offers thirty minutes complimentary Wi-Fi access at its Road Lodge brand.

"As a leading provider of accommodation to business and leisure travellers, we appreciate that our market has evolved in line with global trends, and connectivity is of growing importance to our guests", said Clifford Ross, the group's chief executive.
