

Mobile App Challenge to be implemented by YouthConnekt

In an aim to promote job creation and youth empowerment utilizing mobile technologies, Rwanda's Ministry of Youth and ICT and the UNDP, in collaboration with Motorola Solutions, will power a Mobile App Challenge to be implemented by YouthConnekt, reports BizTech Africa.

For more:

- BizTech Africa: YouthConnekt launches Mobile Apps for Human Development Challenge in Rwanda... The Mobile App Challenge is open to young people between the ages of 18-25 and the deadline for proposals is 25 February 2014.

Cash prizes range from USD 1,000-6,000. In addition to the cash prize, the first winner will receive business training and mentoring by successful entrepreneurs throughout the initial phase of their start-up.

For more, view the full application form.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>