

Pre-register for FHW and guarantee business connections

Issued by Fiera Milano

9 May 2014

Pre-register for Food Hospitality World Africa now and say hello to a brighter future. Click here.

Why pre-register?

Because Food Hospitality World Africa is the exclusive trade show for the food and hospitality industry in Africa; it is the only trade show that has a global footprint and has an international delegation of important buyers attending through the DTI inward buyer programme. By pre-registering, we can match you with buyers and visitors so that you do the best business possible at FHW.

And if that's not enough ... here are more good reasons for pre-registering:

- Confirm pre-fixed meetings with any one of the DTI's delegation of international and local buyers
- Schedule your meetings ahead and meet the experts at FHW through FHW's exclusive Expo Matching Program (EMP)
- Network with leading importers, distributors, manufactures, retailers and service providers
- Gain valuable insights into new international and African market developments
- Save months of due diligence by talking to hundreds of experts and solution providers over three days
- Establish new South African and international partnerships
- Learn how to invest successfully in Africa's food and hospitality industry

Show features:

- Gelato World
- Lion's Den
- Foods From Around the World
- World of Halal
- Buyers Lounge
- Hospitality Suite
