

Gear4 releases Espresso speaker range

Gear4 has released its Espresso wireless portable speaker range, designed to look like coffee mugs. Small but powerful, they come in in green, yellow, pink, cyan, black and orange.

The perfect accompaniment to any smartphone, tablet, MP3 PC or Mac with Bluetooth, they have a 10m range and an automatic search function making Bluetooth pairing simple, just one button makes the speakers very easy to use. The speakers have a 4-hour rechargeable battery and a USB micro charging cable. They are available from Look & Listen and Musica stores nationwide for R399.
