

MGMT named as latest headline act for Rocking The Daisies

MGMT will join the UK's Rudimental and Crystal Fighters as a headline act for the forthcoming Rocking The Daisies festival, which will be held from 2 to 5 October, 2014, at the Cloof Wine Estate in Darling, Western Cape.

MGMT (comprising Andrew van Wyngarden and Ben Goldwasser) will command the attention of Daisies fans with their tongue-in-cheek take on modern rock, while enthraling fans with the massive global hits, Kids, Electric Feel, Time to Pretend and more.

Local acts Jeremy Loops, John Wizards, Beatenberg, Arno Carstens and Francois van Coke and over 120 more acts will be taking to the Daisies stages, over the four days of the festival.

Rocking the Daises, 2nd - 5th October 2014 will be held on Cloof Wine Estate in Darling, Western Cape. In its ninth year since inception Rocking the Daisies has gone on to become the Western Cape's most iconic outdoor music festival and South Africa's premier eco-friendly music and lifestyle festival. Click here to buy tickets.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>