

Performers called to enter Carousel's Open Mic Nights

Emerging entertainers are called to enter The Carousel's Open Mic Nights which provides a platform for local talent to be discovered, showcased and rewarded.

The G7 Band were among the many entries in The Carousel's Open Mic Nights talent competition earlier this year.

The winning performer on each night will receive R1 000 in cash while the ultimate winner of the competition will walk away with a six month contract to perform at the casino.

"The Carousel is thrilled to provide local emerging entertainers with a platform to showcase their talent. Our previous Open Mic Night competitions have been immensely exciting and proved that there is some exceptional talent in our local communities just waiting to be discovered.

"For all contestants, it is a great opportunity to show-off what they can do, and assess themselves against other performers. Of course, for the ultimate winner, a six month entertainment contract at The Carousel is fantastic exposure," says The Carousel's PR consultant, Melanie Coetzee.

Enter now

This competition is open to all emerging bands, vocalists, jazz outfits, and instrumentalists. Open Mic Nights are in February next year, but hopefuls are urged to get their entries in soon.

Entry forms are available at the casino's MVG Desk, on the website www.carousel.co.za and via email from info@smashingpromotions.co.za.

The cost to enter is R200 per act. Entrants will be required to perform a song on stage before a live audience and will be evaluated by a judging panel.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>