

Nickelodeon's ultimate toy run open to South African kids

Toys R Us has collaborated with Nickelodeon to give South African kids the opportunity to participate in Nickelodeon's Ultimate Toy Run. This gives contestants the chance to raid shelves for their favourite toys in an epic race against the clock.

Twelve kids from across the country will earn the chance to heap up their trolleys with as many toys as possible within a minute (maximum value R15,000), before three finalists go head-to-head in an online video battle, as Nickelodeon fans vote for their favourite runners.

The lucky winner will jet off with three friends or family to New York City to participate in the grand finale of Nickelodeon's Ultimate Toy Run, with the chance to earn prizes valued at $5,000.

Nickelodeon's Ultimate Toy Run with Toys R Us is open to South African kids aged 6-12 between 2 May and 10 June 2016. For more information, go to www.nickelodeonafrica.com.
