

Voting open for Nickelodeon's 2017 Kids' Choice Awards

Voting has opened for the Nickelodeon 2017 Kids' Choice Awards, a live event where kids' votes count and the biggest stars of the day line up to get slimed. This year there are nine new categories, such as 'Favourite Frenemies', 'Most Wanted Pet' and '#Squad'.

Celebrating kids' favourites from across the worlds of film, television, music and pop culture, this year's list of nominations include Yemi Alade, Funke Akindele Bello, Trevor Noah, Lupita Nyong'o, Pearl Thusi and Wayde van Niekerk - all nominated in the "Favourite African Star" category.

African stars will be in good company alongside fellow nominees Ben Affleck, Henry Cavill, Daya, Chris Evans, Idris Elba, Megan Fox, Lukas Graham, Kevin Hart, Scarlett Johansson, Dwayne Johnson, Felicity Jones, Leslie Jones, Anna Kendrick, Bruno Mars, Melissa McCarthy, JoJo Siwa, The Chainsmokers, Justin Timberlake, Twenty One Pilots and more.

Hosted by WWE Superstar John Cena, the Awards takes place on Saturday 11 March at USC's Galen Center in Los Angeles and premieres simultaneously on Nickelodeon and NickToons at 3.40pm on Wednesday 15 March.
