

Cape Royale wins luxury hotel location of the year

Cape Royale Luxury Hotel in Green Point, Cape Town has nabbed the title of Luxury Hotel Location of the Year in the Luxury Travel Guide Awards 2017 for the Africa and Middle East Regions.

A stone's throw away from Cape Town Stadium and the Sea Point promenade, Cape Royale Luxury Hotel caters to the international market due to its prime location. The V&A Waterfront and Cape Town Convention Centre is also on the hotel's doorstep as well as some of Cape Town's best beaches which are a mere five kilometres away. Zenith Sky Bar on the rooftop allows guests to take in the panoramic views of the Atlantic Ocean and to top it all off, Casuarina Wellness Centre and Spa can be found at the hotel, together with an array of restaurants at its forefront such as Café Royale, SHEGO, Rustica, Osumo, Jewel of Africa, Simply Asia and Shift Espresso Bar.

"We are fortunate to be in one of the best cities in the world, in my opinion, and the location of the hotel attracts guests from all over," explains Vincent Bouwer, revenue, sale and marketing manager at Cape Royale Luxury Hotel. "With our five-star offering, designer suites, and pristine restaurants, guests can submerge themselves in the height of luxury."

The awards recognises key industry players in the travel and tourism industry from around the world and they explore the globe in search of excellence to identify the very best hotels, airlines, and tour operators.
