

Local is lekker: An SA solution for draining chest wounds

South African doctors and innovators have come up with a homegrown solution to overcome the ineffective chest draining techniques used to treat stab and gunshot wounds. Sinapi Biomedical has designed a new device that is easier to use, more cost effective and also created jobs for 100 South Africans.

Source: Path

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>