

Voting open for SA E-Commerce Awards

The public has spoken and the nominations for this year's South African E-Commerce Awards are now awaiting your vote. Voting will close on 23 November 2007 and the winners will be announced on 26 November.

"We are extremely delighted with the nominees for this years' awards and we look forward to the outcome at the end of the voting period." says Albert Bredenhann, MD of Jump Shopping.

Nominations were opened to the public on 28 September and closed on 19 October; over 3000 were received from the public. The nominations can be viewed at www.jump.co.za/awards/2007.

This year's judges who will vote for the store that they think are deserving are:
