

Kaspersky Lab shows 864% growth in five years in EMEA

MOSCOW, RUSSIA: Kaspersky Lab, a leading developer of secure content and threat management solutions, announces that it has been ranked in Deloitte Technology Fast 500™ EMEA. With 864% growth in five years, Kaspersky Lab was recognised as one of the 500 fastest growing technology companies from 24 EMEA (Europe, Middle East and Africa) countries based on five-year average percentage revenue growth.

Commenting on the ranking, Eugene Kaspersky, CEO and co-founder of Kaspersky Lab, said, "We are proud that our business growth has been recognised by Deloitte. Over the last five years Kaspersky Lab has enjoyed incredibly rapid expansion. Based on the constant development of our world-beating technologies and products, the company has become truly global. However, this new stage of business sets new challenges, and we are ready to face them and move ahead to greater achievements!"

The Fast 500

The Deloitte Technology Fast 500 EMEA program is the region's most objective industry-ranking standard to focus on the technology field and is now celebrating its 11th year. The program recognises technology companies that have achieved the fastest rates of revenue growth in Europe, the Middle East, and Africa during the past five years. Combining technological innovation, entrepreneurship, and rapid growth, Fast 500 companies - large, small, public, and private - span a variety of industry sectors, and are leaders in hardware, software, telecom, semiconductors, Internet, media and entertainment, life sciences and greentech.

'Kaspersky a well-known brand across the world'

The program is supported by the Deloitte Technology Fast 500 initiatives, which rank high growth technology companies by location or specifically defined geographic area and is run by the Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited's Technology, Media Telecommunications (TMT) global industry group.

Olga Tabakova, Deloitte CIS TMT Leader, commented that, "Kaspersky Lab is a well-known brand not only in Russia but across the world. It's included in the list of the 100 biggest IT companies. The fact that Kaspersky Lab is recognised by the Deloitte Technology EMEA Fast 500 program proves that Russian companies can successfully compete in the global marketplace alongside their foreign peers, and is evidence that more and more Russian companies will enter this ranking in the future."
