The PICA accolades are truly the cherry on top for New Media, who has won numerous respected local and international awards this year. Just in the past four weeks, New Media has celebrated major wins at the Pearl Awards in New York for Woolworths TASTE (Gold - Best Integrated Print and Web Programme) and Siyasiza, the internal communications magazine for FNB (Best New Launch/Relaunch); scored big at the Galliovas, with Woolworths TASTE food editor Abigail Donnelly winning the top award - Best Food Writer of the Year - as well as Best Stylist; at Bookmarks, with Woolworths TASTE Digital and Eatout.co.za taking home four prizes for excellence.

"Being recognised within our industry with top honours like these is of course wonderful, but even more gratifying is knowing that we've done our best for our clients, having created content that not only resonates with their readers but also gives measurable results," said Bridget McCarney, Managing Director for New Media. "Our customers' satisfaction is the real reward, but that said, the PICAs and other awards are certainly much appreciated nods for the consistently outstanding groundbreaking work created by our talented team, and we are very proud to be the recipients of these honours."
