

OFM's breakfast club to party in Mauritius

27 Jun 2011

OFM, the sound of central South Africa for the past 25 years, began a three month birthday celebration in June 2011. The three month celebration was kicked off with the breakfast club arranging a tour for the ultimate birthday party - in Mauritius.

The central South African winter temperatures don't really make for a festive party, so with the help of MiWay Insurance and Thompson Holidays, The Breakfast Club on OFM is moving this party to Mauritius and inviting listeners to join them. From central South Africa to the Indian Ocean; OFM's Tim Thabethe will host 200 listeners on a once in a lifetime experience.

The tour group will spend six days at the le Preskil Beach Resort from 24 to 30 October 2011. Package includes return flights from Johannesburg, six nights' accommodation with breakfast, lunch, dinner and select drinks, themed evenings, all with the OFM Breakfast Club.
