

New photography gallery opens in Cape Town

A new photography gallery opened last week in Cape Town, next to the Gardens Shopping Centre at 4 Hiddingh Avenue. Sean Riley will be presenting his own work and will host some guest photographers in the gallery from time to time.

Sean's current work covers a range of pictures across subject matters including football, cities of the world, graffiti, and macro photography.

"Photography has been a lifelong passion of mine. I'm very excited and privileged to be able to share some of it with the world. I prefer raw, largely unedited work above excessive Photoshopping. Lens glare, scratches produced from using a vintage camera, and imperfections add to the reality of the image," said Riley.

By day, Riley is the CEO of the global advertising network, Ad Dynamo.
