

City Bowl Fashion and Food Market

30+ designers are all gathered at 14 Hope Street in Cape Town for an amazing market. It's the LAST Fashion Market for the year!

If you love fashion, vintage, accessories, jewellery, woodwork and decor - don't miss this event on the 8 of December!

As always, there is also delicious food from around the world - so bring your fashion friends around for breakfast or lunch.

For more info, see <http://www.facebook.com/events/155621061215830/>

About the City Bowl Market:

City Bowl Market on Hope street brings together a variety of fine foods, drinks and people every Thursday evening and Saturday morning. Our mission is to be a viable and sustainable, independent, quality food market, rooted in the local community.

Date: 08 December 2012

Time: 09:00 - 14:00

Venue: 14 Hope Street, Gardens, Cape Town

Cost: Free

More info:

DIRECTIONS

Coming from Southern Suburbs:

Follow M3 and take the De Waal Road. Follow this road until it turns into Roeland Street. As you approach the end of this road Hope Street is the last road on your left. Follow the street and you will find 14 Hope Street opposite the French School.

Coming from Northern Suburbs:

As you come of the N2 into town follow Buitengracht Street. Follow this until you reach Buitensingel Road and take a left here. Buitensingel Road turns into Oranje Street and thereafter Mill Street. As it turns to Mill Street you will find Hope Street on your left. keep driving about 200 meters and you will find the venue on your left hand side.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>