

New appointment bolsters Comztek's Cisco voice skills set

Comztek is pleased to announce the appointment of Morne Coetzee as a core voice specialist to its Cisco Team.

With the growing need for converged communications solutions across the enterprise, Coetzee will provide Comztek partners insight into core features and benefits of the Cisco voice technologies, enabling customers to better take advantage of a true converged voice and data experience.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>