

IAS adds media monitoring analysis

The Independent Agency Selection and Selection Company (IAS), has added media monitor and analysis search to its scope of services to help clients find and evaluate the appropriate monitoring company. It will also assist clients to find the appropriate monitoring company not only to evaluate coverage, but to track what is happening in their industry and around the world

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>