

Business Partners rewards entrepreneurs

Business Partners, a small and medium enterprises (SME) financier, launched the Business Partners Recognition Programme this year to give recognition to successful entrepreneurs and award those in the SME environment for their commitment and success. It has made its first award in Cape Town to Louise Robinson, for her continued commitment and success as CG Consulting's sales and marketing director, specialists in the data and lead generation field.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>