Union advantages topic at monthly SAFREA meeting

The Gauteng Southern African Freelancers' Association (SAFREA) meeting for May 2010 will take place on Wednesday 5 May at Primi Piatti, The Zone@Rosebank, Johannesburg, 5pm-8pm. Exco chair Clive Lotter will speak on the benefits of UASA (union) membership for Safreans and why they should join. In a bid to encourage non-members to attend, a reverse entry fee policy has been instated - members who fail to bring a guest must pay a R20 entrance; the rest arrive free. RSVP on Facebook or email Dominique Valente at .
