

Entries for Virgin Active Sport Industry Awards still open, as entries pass 2011 numbers

Entries for Virgin Active Sport Industry Awards, which are still open until Friday 5 October 2012, have already passed the number of entries received for last year's competition. The official judging panel, made up of experts from across the business of sport and chaired by former Springbok captain Bob Skinstad, will examine the extensive list of entries to select the very best work South African sport has to offer. They will be recognised at the Virgin Active Sport Industry Awards ceremony at Emperors Palace on 7 February 2013. For more, go to www.sportindustry.co.za.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>