

Celebrating 25 years of zest for food

Stafford Bros & Draeger is proud to celebrate its anniversary of the Staffords brand of accompaniments.

Arthur Stafford had a dream to establish and build a company that would lead the way in making the world's finest foods available in South Africa. After starting his own business in 1921, he was joined by his brother Harry and subsequently by Max Draeger, forming the current company in 1951.

In 1987, the company made the decision to offer branded products and now, 25 years later is acknowledged as one of the leading brands in the fine foods industry of condiments, sauces and baking aids. The range is available from all leading supermarkets and retail outlets.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>