

TripAdvisor honours Le Touessrok and La Pirogue Hotels

World Leisure Holidays' Le Touessrok and La Pirogue have won further awards, this time from TripAdvisor.

Le Touessrok

TripAdvisor honours only the world's most popular hotels; places earning their distinction from those who know them best and who are most honest - travellers.

This year, millions of travellers from around the world voted Le Touessrok the hotel deserving of honorary awards in two categories: the Top 25 Luxury Hotels in Africa and the Top 25 Relaxation & Spa Hotels in Africa. Le Touessrok is a popular first-choice destination for guests wanting the royal treatment in a paradise environment.

La Pirogue Hotel was awarded a TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence, for having achieved top ratings by guests during 2012. World Leisure Holidays says this is a huge achievement because it is rooted in the opinions and holiday experiences of real holidaymakers - people who have first-hand experience of service and facilities... everything from the bad, to the good, the very good - and the exceptional.
