It's simply not cricket

NEWSWATCH: Cricket South Africa (CSA) is apparently still negotiating with the SABC to get live coverage of the Proteas home series against New Zealand, reports sport24.

For more:

- sport24: CSA in negotiations with SABC... Cricket has a massive following in SA, but the SABC apparently doesn't have the money for the rights to broadcast - even though the cost is only half of what it could have been.

  Cricket South Africa (CSA) confirmed on their Facebook page yesterday, however, that they are still in negotiations regarding live coverage of the series on SABC.

- See also:

- Possible breakthrough and at least one upcoming cricket match to be shown on SABC3, as SABC balks at rights fees
- SABC to broadcast one cricket match
- Cricket blackout on SABC for SA matches

For more, visit: https://www.bizcommunity.com