

Exclusive interview with Oprah on Africa Prime

In an hour long special on Africa Prime, exclusive to CNBC Africa, Godfrey Mutizwa will chat to Oprah Winfrey about her Leadership Academy for Girls which opened its doors in Johannesburg, South Africa in 2007. Winfrey was recently in South Africa to celebrate the graduation of the first group of matriculants, who achieved a 100% pass rate. During the episode, Winfrey will re-tell the conversation with former SA president, Nelson Mandela, which convinced her to build the boarding school. She also gives insight into life after her talk show, as well as her newest endeavour, the Oprah Winfrey Network, a 24-hour American specialty channel. Catch the interview today, Tuesday, 16 January 2012, at 6pm CAT on Channel 410 on DStv.
