

Cvent rates Dubai as the top meeting destination in the Middle East

Cvent has rated Dubai as the top destination for meetings in the Middle East, placing the city within the top 25 meeting destinations in the Europe Middle East Africa region. The city's wide range of airports, ports, and public transport means that travelling in and out of the city is relatively easy.

In addition to this, Dubai also boasts 399 meeting hotels, 74,197 rooms for sleeping and 21,200 committable sleeping rooms, which range from opulent to mid-market and are created to suit the taste and budget of every business traveller.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>