Provantage Media recently entertained and thanked its clients for their ongoing support. On Monday 20 October clients were treated to a snacks and cocktail feast at the Montecasino Teatro and thereafter they were whisked off to enjoy front-row seats at the magnificent Cats musical.

Over two days clients were wine and dined at Tanz Café, where an exclusive performance by award-winning rock band, Watershed, took place. The band, booked exclusively for the client event, made sure that Provantage clients and staff danced the night away.

“It is the ongoing support and loyalty over the last six years from our valued clients that has ensured Provantage Media continued success through this tough period, which is why we wanted to thank them by arranging these events,” says Jacques du Preez, Managing Director at Provantage Media. “Now, more than ever strong client relationships, built on trust, quantifiable results and a fair level of social interaction are most important for all marketing agencies...”
