

African Online selects DIGITALK for voice services

Africa Online, a wholly owned subsidiary of Telkom South Africa has confirmed that DIGITALK will be their preferred supplier for value-added voice services in Africa.

The DIGITALK Multiservice Platform will be deployed in several sites across the continent and will be allowing Africa Online to rapidly deploy services including broadband telephony, prepaid calling cards and conferencing.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>