

Celebrating 20 years of freedom with Heart 104.9FM begins today

Heart 104.9FM will present a series of outside broadcasts and activations to honour and celebrate twenty years of freedom.

The first in the series will be held at Drakenstein Prison/Mandela's House today, Monday 7 April 2014 (twenty days to 27 April) to build awareness and excitement around this year's Freedom Day.

The live broadcast will be between 6am-9am and will be hosted by the station's Breakfast show with Aden Thomas, Julian Naidoo (traffic) and Tapfuma Makina (sport). Ten listeners will join the breakfast team to celebrate this auspicious occasion.
