

Eusebius McKaiser joins, Jenny Crwys-Williams leaves 702 and Cape Talk

From the end of July 2016, Eusebius McKaiser will host the 9am to noon slot on Radio 702 and Cape Talk from Mondays to Thursdays, as Redi Tlhabi goes on maternity leave until mid January 2017. The Friday Stand-In will continue with a different, prominent person hosting the show each week.

Jenny Crwys-Williams will no longer host the weekly Book Show from 11am to noon on Thursdays, however, the slot will remain for the discussion of books.

Crystal Orderson takes over the daily Africa Report on John Robbie's breakfast show from long-time contributor, JJ Cornish.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>