

New offices for Page Three Media

Strategic media planning specialist agency Page Three Media has moved into its new offices at Unit 405, The Studio's, Old Castle Breweries, 6 Beach Road, Woodstock, Cape Town, coinciding with the celebration of its first birthday. "The past year has truly been fantastic for us and we have exceeded our forecast expectations. Our client billings are currently at R230 million, which has been accomplished within the past year alone and include media planning for a mix of direct clients and leading creative agencies in Cape Town. Moving into our new contemporary-designed offices at the Old Breweries building is the next milestone for our company!" says Ilan Lazarus of Page Three Media.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>