The Boss of the Year Award recently announced the 15 semi-finalists, featuring corporate captains, a vice-admiral, a primary school teacher and two professors - and well-known advertising CEO, Renee Silverstone of The Jupiter Drawing Room. Six finalists, selected from this group in September 2009, will meet a panel of judges on 10 October and the winner will be announced at a banquet lunch on the National Bosses Day, 16 October, in the Montecasino Ballroom. Organised by Dictum Publishers, MTN SA Foundation is the patron and main sponsor of the award, which celebrates its 20th year in 2009.
