

Zuma, Cabinet to 'lead by example' on Aids

President Jacob Zuma and his Cabinet have agreed to public HIV tests during the launch of the government's campaign to combat HIV/Aids.

This is the second time Zuma has agreed to a public HIV test. He agreed to be tested on World Aids Day in December, but failed to do so.

But government spokesman Themba Maseko said the government had committed itself at Wednesday's Cabinet meeting to "leading by example".
