

SA first to seize pirated MIB2

The South African Federation Against Copyright Theft (SAFACT) has become the first anti-counterfeiting and copyright protection agency in the world to seize counterfeit copies of the unreleased movie Men in Black 2. This came about when two passengers were caught at Johannesburg International Airport with 3400 pirated DVDs, 500 of which were copies of MIB2.

Source: ICT World

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>