The web has profoundly changed the way we interact with one another. More and more people are networking, communicating and doing business online. However, this surge in web activity has brought with it a constant need to keep improving user experience. That is why Yookos Micro-blogging has released an even more exciting upgrade for its popular social networking site. The Yookos 2.1 upgrade will not only give the user a much improved navigation interface, it will also open up a new world of fun, excitement and opportunities than ever before.

"Yookos 2.1 is a thrilling and refreshing experience with a new look and feel and exciting features that have been added to give users hours of fun and excitement," said Tomisin Fashina, CEO of Yookos. He explains further, "For instant communication, we have added a 'chat' feature that enhances relations and social interactions of our users on Yokoos."

The moment one interacts with Yookos 2.1 it becomes immediately clear that there is more to it than just fun and social interaction. It is also a powerful platform for businesses to launch and market their new products or services. With Yookos 2.1, businesses can easily reach out to their customer base at one go and get quick feedback. Add that to an ever expanding user base and you have a site that offers unlimited opportunities to tap into new consumer markets.
