

Holiday Inn Express St George's Mall celebrated its 1st birthday

Holiday Inn Express recently pulled out the stops during their one year anniversary.

MD, Gavin Watson, welcomed all with a blue 'Express' martini while they viewed the hotel. Well known Capetonian comedian Kurt Schoonraad entertained, whilst guests were given the opportunity to have their caricatures done by cartoonist Sean Verster.

Guests were treated to the red carpet treatment leading from the hotel to the picturesque setting in St' George's Mall, where they enjoyed wine stalls, massage stations by Camelot Spa, live marimba band and delicious food sponsored by both Doppio Zero and Riboville Restaurants.

Prizes included a weekend at Bongani Mountain Lodge with car rental by Imperial, Camelot Spa Voucher, Dinner vouchers by both Doppio Zero and Riboville. All guest were sent home with beautiful gift packs.
