

What PR interns must know before coming to work

Irvine & Bartlett's Rachel Irvine says that most of the interns she encounters are not equipped to work in PR.

Our first meeting of 2015, on Tuesday, 20 January at 5.30pm will be at the newly relocated Bedouin Deli, now serving its famous Labneh and Deli fare at The Cape Quarter, De Waterkant.

While there will be much soft cheese at the session, there will also be hard talk as she outlines what PR interns need to know before coming to work - and don't.

Cost: R150 per person.
