

The Cannabis Expo heads to KZN

The Cannabis Expo is making its way to Sibaya Casino in Durban, a city famous for the specific strands of cannabis that grow in the region. The Expo, presented by Go Life International, will be showcasing innovative products and businesses from across the globe.

Attracting more than 12,000 people in Pretoria and 18,000 attendees in Cape Town, The Cannabis Expo, which is the biggest of its kind on the African continent, is preparing for a busy four days in Durban.

With all facets of the industry represented from across the agricultural, medicinal, financial, legal and lifestyle sectors, The Cannabis Expo is the African meeting point for the global cannabis industry. It attracts local business and agricultural leaders, aspiring cannabis entrepreneurs, international delegates and even government delegations from neighbouring African countries, as well as thousands of visitors keen to learn more about this versatile plant.

AB InBev dips toe into cannabis drinks business with $100m joint venture deal

21 Dec 2018

The Convention Stage at the Durban expo will host informative talks every half-hour by experts from across the industry. The event provides a platform for people to learn more about the cannabis industry, engage with local and international cannabis entrepreneurs, discover innovative products and explore opportunities in the fast-growing world of cannabis business.

The Durban expo is specifically expected to attract massive interest from the local agricultural sector.

The Cannabis Expo Durban takes place from 6 to 9 June 2019 at Sibaya Casino.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>