

Africa's Travel Indaba 2020 registration now open

South African Tourism has opened registrations for Africa's Travel Indaba for 2020. The event will take place from 11-14 May 2020 at the Inkosi Albert Luthuli International Convention Centre in Durban.

Image via Africa's Travel Indaba

Africa's Travel Indaba has evolved to become a crucial platform for African travel trade companies looking to become globally competitive. It is also used to promote and support the ongoing transformation and development of the South African tourism industry.

SMMEs are particularly well-supported at Africa's Travel Indaba.

Africa's Travel Indaba 2019 introduces first-ever Green Stand Awards

20 Mar 2019

Over 6,500 delegates - which included 1,033 exhibitors and 1,502 buyers – made their way to Durban for this year's Indaba which was jam-packed with a series of insightful business talks, speed marketing sessions and for the very first time, the Green Stand Awards.

South African Tourism calls on all exhibitors to join the travel and trade show in 2020.

Discounted rates are available at 5% for early bird registrations and 10% for new exhibitors and exhibitors from other African countries outside South Africa.