

Ideagen PLC wins accounts worth £1.2m

Information management software provider, Ideagen PLC announced that it won three accounts worth a combined total of £1.2 million in the past month. The new clients include Canadian airline, Air Transat, Dutch airline, KLM, as well as British health care provider, Medway NHS Trust.

Air Transat and KLM have selected Ideagen to implement risk-based compliance solutions to help drive operational excellence and enhance customer safety. While, Medway NHS Trust chose Ideagen to provide a secure platform to enable the trust's laboratories to electronically communicate with GP practices, streamlining the clinical test process and improving patient care.
