

Reconciliation Festival to feature Lira, Zahara, Zonke and MiCasa

On 3 December, the first Reconciliation Festival will take place at Carnival City's Festival Lawns from 10am.

Local music

Headlining the outdoor event is musical trio, Afro Soul, comprising multiple award winning Zonke Dikana, Lira and Zahara. Fans will also be treated to performances by top South African house band MiCasa, as well as rising stars such as Amanda Black, Sjava, Rabs Vhafuwi, Smanga and more.

"We are excited to confirm the lineup for the inaugural Reconciliation Festival at Carnival City. This event is for the whole family and we encourage parents to bring their children for an afternoon of authentic South African entertainment by some of South Africa's foremost artists," says Richard Ramudzuli, of Thikho Events Management.

The Festival Lawns will feature a dedicated children's zone with activities and entertainment. Food and refreshments will also be on sale.
