

Moretele Park Tribute Concert recognises 20 years of democracy

South Africa's 20 years of democracy will be celebrated at the annual Tribute Concert, which will take place at Moretele Park, Mamelodi, Pretoria, on Saturday, 30 August, 2014.

The line-up for this year's special edition Moretele Park Tribute Concert, which pays homage to our democracy and its musical heroes and icons, reads like a who's who of the local music industry.

Headlining are Afro-pop duo Mafikizolo, the comeback kids who recently collected two MTV Africa Music Awards to add to the eight South African Music Awards they won at this year's ceremony.

Dance maestros Mi Casa will be getting the crowd up on their feet with their house grooves.

Le Zulu Blanc

Johnny Clegg - our very own Le Zulu Blanc, a true living legend who has been fêted as a French Knight of Arts and Letters and who received the Order of Ikhamanga back home - will also be performing on the day.

He will be joined by fellow music veterans Yvonne Chaka Chaka, Letta Mbulu, Jonas Gwangwa, Thomas Chauke and Ringo. The younger generation of dazzling musicians is well represented by Lira, Bhudaza, Musa (last year's Idols winner) and Zonke.

Emerging jazz artists and groups will also perform on the day.

The entertainment starts at 11am and continues into the night. Tickets cost R300 and are available at Computicket.
