

What to expect from the Sandton City Gamers Expo

The Sandton City Gamers Expo will be held at the shopping centre in Johannesburg from 21 to 24 November 2019.

The Sandton City Gamers Expo's lineup will have something for the cyber gamers, racing fans, competition seekers and character merchandise collectors.

Games and gaming demos

The expo includes designated areas for the public to engage with PlayStation, Xbox and Nintendo's latest releases.

Gaming demos, tech and character paraphernalia from a variety of brands such as Lego, Heroes of Games and Comics and more will also be on offer.

Fifa 20 tournament

E-sports is bringing the 'heat' for those competitive gamers in the form of a R40,000 Fifa 20 tournament operated by African Cyber Gaming League (ACGL). There will be eight heats, with legs for both PlayStation 4 and Xbox One.

Players will compete on their preferred platform until one emerges victorious. The first prize is R25,000, while the second is R10,000, with third place winning R5,000.

McLaren supercar

For the speed freaks, Daytona Group will have a McLaren supercar in the mix while the public face-off in virtual racing competitions.

Those with the fastest laps per day will win themselves Sandton City gift vouchers.

Visit www.sandtoncity.com for more information and www.acgl.co.za to register for your free spot in the E-sport Fifa 20 tournament.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>