

Milan Fashion Week to feature Diesel Fall/Winter 2022 womenswear

Diesel has announced that it will be taking part in Milan Fashion Week (MFW) showcasing womenswear for the Fall/Winter 2022 season. This is Diesel's first time participating in the womenswear segment of MFW.

F/W Diesel takes place at 1pm CET on 23 February 2022.

Glenn Martens' second runway collection for Diesel will be unveiled at the event. In addition to the showcased collection, Martens will apply his design sensibility to the Diesel universe to produce an all-gender wardrobe.

The brand also announced its participation in Milan Fashion Week Women's for the Spring/Summer 2023 show season, which occurs in September 2022.
