

SABC refuses to apologise to M&G

NEWSWATCH: The SABC is refusing to apologise on air to the Mail & Guardian over the Robert Gumedde fiasco, and intends to appeal to ICASA now, after the BCCSA last week rejected its appeal, reports Eyewitness News, and the Nelson Mandela Foundation is holding a meeting tomorrow between government ministers and officials, MPs and civil society groups to "try to resolve the impasse over the [Secrecy Bill]", reports IOL.

For more:

- EWN: SABC says it will not apologise to M&G
- IOL: Info bill: Mandela foundation weighs in
- Leadership magazine: Secrecy Bill: Tide turns - democracy might triumph (a recap)

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>