

Chris Brown to play Joburg and Durban

Singer-songwriter Chris Brown, aka 'Breezy', is to return to South Africa for concerts at the Coca-Cola Dome, Joburg, on Thursday, 2 April and the Moses Mabhida People's Park, Durban on Saturday, 4 April, 2015.

The Chris Brown X Tour Live in SA concerts are part of a world tour to celebrate the release of his sixth studio album entitled 'X'. For the album, Brown teams up with some of today's hottest artists in R&B, hip hop and pop, such as Usher, Lil Wayne, Nicki Minaj, Rick Ross and Tyga. 'X' was released on 16 September via RCA Records.

With over one million in sales of Loyal featuring Lil Wayne and Tyga, Brown continues to prove his staying power as the single claimed the number onespot on Mainstream R&B/Hip chart for nine weeks, eight weeks at the top of the R&B/Hip-H Airplay chart and two weeks at number one on the Rhythmic chart.

New Flame

Brown's latest track, New Flame, featuring Usher and Rick Ross is already Top 20 at both Urban and Rhythm radio and growing quickly. Coupled with previously released chart-topping hits Love More featuring Nicki Minaj, Don't Think They Know featuring Aaliyah, and Fine China, Brown has gained critical praise and excitement from the public for 'X'. Regarding the new album, Brown has said, "I want everyone to take a journey with me through 'X.' We're going to experience the highs and the lows, the love and the pain."

'X' is the follow-up to Brown's 2012 chart-topping album, Fortune, which debuted at number one on both the Billboard Top 200 Albums Chart and Top R&B/Hip Hop Albums Chart and earned Brown a Grammy nomination for Best Urban Contemporary Album.
