

New artists added to African Music concert line-up

The first annual African Music concert, which will take place on Saturday, 24 October, 2015, at NASREC, Joburg, has been renamed and two prominent African artists from Tanzania - ex MTV Base presenter /Tanzania's first lady of pop Vanessa Mdee and Kenyan sensation Victoria Kimani.

With just under 18 days left, planning is well underway. From showcasing 20 of the biggest African headline acts, the festival promises festivities and celebrations at this 10-hour concert. Doors open at 5pm with the first act on stage at 6pm. African merchandise, food and drink will be sold on site to add to the festival feel.

The African Music Concert 2015 will feature African royalty Wizkid, AKA, Davido and KO, Nigeria giants Flavour and Burna Boy, SA's own Bucie and Uhuru, leaders of the new school Da Les, Emmy Gee, Runtown. Producer extraordinaire Anatii will also be a headline act. The world-renowned Soweto Gospel Choir will add the twist to the line-up singing with Darey, the first Project Fame Africa Winner in SA; while the super fly female talents Dama Do Bling, Vanessa Mdee and Victoria Kimani are ready to show the guys that they rule.

South Africa's T'bo Touch will MC alongside Nigeria's music industry pioneer and Beat FM host Olisa Odibua. Official DJs for the concert include DJ Spinall and Metro FM's DJ Jawz.
