

Banzi Kasana awarded Loeries Creative Future Scholarship

Banzi Kasana of SACS High School in Newlands Cape Town is the recipient of the 2014 Creative Future Scholarship.

The scholarship covers everything to assist the student - fees, study materials, accommodation, living and travel expenses. The scholarship also offers mentorship, internship and employment in the communications industry.

This year, for the first time, additional bursaries were offered by Vega School of Brand Leadership and the Red & Yellow School allowing two more students to benefit from the programme. Recipients of these bursaries are Ida Janine van Staden from Parklands College and Chiquita Williams from PJ Olivier Art Centre in Stellenbosch.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>